

Events at the Research Institute of Language Studies and Language Education during the 2013 Academic Year

Invited Lecture:

June 18, 2013

Dr. Rod Ellis (University of Auckland)

“A typology of corrective feedback types”

“Catering for individual differences”

“Bag Lunch” Seminars:

June 5, 2013

Jo Mynard & Tim Murphey

“An evaluation of the success of peer review journals at KUIS”

Tara McIlroy

“Exploring poetry and identity in a language learning environment”

July 3, 2013

Luke Rowland

“English in the Japanese linguistic landscape: A pentadic analysis”

Jason Ropitini, Raswan Sockol, & Marnie Brown

“An analysis of student technological competencies at KUIS: A longitudinal quantitative approach”

October 2, 2013

Richard O’Loughlin

“Teacher perceptions of a language curriculum: A CATWOE analysis”

Jacob Breau & Marnie Brown

“Multilingual learners’ attitudes and expectations of language instructors”

October 30, 2013

Atsumi Yamaguchi

“A narrative analysis on students’ sojourn abroad experiences”

Raswan Sockol

“The efficacy of visual, computer-based, instruction for post Critical Period phonological production in L2 learners”

November 6, 2013

Sakae Onoda

“Investigating the relationship between self-efficacy beliefs, self-regulation strategy use, and L2 vocabulary skill development”

Nena Nikolic, Tim Murphey, & Tara McIlroy

“Materials for Portable Embodied & Extended Cognitive Self-Sourcing (PEECSS)”